

Athlone Education Centre A.G.M.

Tuesday, 24th February, 2009 @ 7.30p.m.

An invitation from us to you, to attend our AGM

The Annual General Meeting of Athlone Education Centre will be held this year on Tuesday, 24th February at 7.30p.m. in the Education Centre. Our guest speaker Marion Flanagan will speak on the topic "Time Management: Achieving a Work/Life Balance". If this is your first time to hear Marion speak you will certainly be motivated and uplifted by one of the best and most entertaining speakers on the education scene.

From time to time some teachers enquire about the finer details of our AGM. The following may assist in clarifying some of the more regular queries we receive:

1. Can I attend the AGM and have little previous knowledge of the business of the Centre?

Yes, the AGM is a brief meeting, aimed at providing an overview of the various activities of the Centre for 2008.

2. Will I end up on a committee?

No, not unless you want to.

3. What work does the Management Committee do?

In general, the Management Committee oversee the running of the Centre. Meetings take place once per month in the Education Centre.

4. Are there any sub-committees?

Yes, there are a number of sub-committees such as: Finance, Human Resources, Special Projects etc.

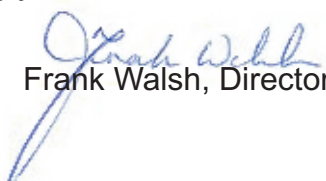

What are the benefits of being a member of the Management Committee?

- 1) Provide an input into the running of the Centre.
- 2) Find out what changes are coming from the Department of Education & Science with relation to in-service.
- 3) Find out what courses are coming on-stream for teachers/education providers.
- 4) Assist in the development of the Centre for the benefit of all.
- 5) Engage in professional discussion with teachers in relation to educational issues.
- 6) Meet new friends.
- 7) Play a part in the development of the local educational community.

I look forward to meeting you,

Frank Walsh, Director.
